OLD HOME TOWN TO SEE PERSHING

Laclede, Mo., on Tiptoe for Greatest Son.

Headquarters in House Where He Lived as Boy.

General Greets Wounded Veterans of the Argonne.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

LACLEDE (Mo.) Dec. 22.—All dressed up, Laclede awaits the 1919 tomorrow of its greatest son, Gen. Pershing. Flags and tricolors bunting form a canopy over the main and only street of the town and an air of expectancy prevails.

When the general arrives he will be met by Gov. Gardner of Missouri, a group of personal boyhood friends, a band and admirers. Gen. Pershing will make his headquarters while here at the house in which he spent his youth prior to the day he left for West Point, thirty-eight years ago. An investigation of women to meet an old-time friend to be served in the dining room of the Pershing home has been perfected by Mrs. Clay Bigler, one of the old friends of the general.

This follows sharp on the heels of a decrease in October of 20,228 barrels a day, and wipes out entirely the slight surplus, heretofore reported.

The shortage for the eleven months ended November 20, 1919, was $82,481 barrels.

Production in November aggregated 8,197,784 barrels, or 27,585 barrels daily, compared with 27,585 barrels daily in November of October, indicating a decrease in November.

November shipments amounted to 8,197,784 barrels or 27,585 barrels daily, compared with October shipments, or 20,228 barrels daily, a decrease in shipments for November of 2,843 barrels daily.

There were fifteen barrels committed in November, with an estimated initial daily yield of 7,624 barrels, as compared with forty-two barrels a day in October. Estimated daily production of 27,585 barrels, an increase in November of twelve wells and 1275 barrels daily.

ARRIVES IN ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—Pershing today made his first visit to his native state since he returned from France. He arrived from Chicago at a late hour, having been delayed by his son, who accompanied him to the station.

Major General Pershing, his 10-year-old son, greeted him as he stepped from the train and the commander-in-chief lifted the boy into his arms at the station.

After a short stay, General Pershing will depart for Laclede, Mo., his birthplace, following a mass meeting at the Coliseum.

ORGAN GRINDERS AND SOCIETY AT FUNERAL.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Funeral services for Cleofonte Campanini were held here today with Mary Gardin, Galli-Curci, Ross, Raleo, Vronni Galli and the entire Chicago Grand Opera Company singing in the choir.

Italian street peddlers and their families rubbed shoulders with Chicago society, gathered to pay honor to the maestro, who died Friday.

Campanini, unacquainted as the arm of Francesco Caddi, one of the original members of Campanini's Chicago Grand Opera Company.

Enrico Lamonti and Hector Dufrane sang Faure's "Crucifix." Tito Schipa sang the "Panis Angelorum" and Galli-Curci the "Ave Maria."

Services will be held in vault at Calvary Cemetery to remain until spring, when Signora Campanini will accompany it to the maestro's birthplace, Parma, Italy.

TO DRAIN ACAJUCA PORT.

SAN SALVADOR (Republic of Salvador) Dec. 22.—The national service of health has decided to devote the work of draining the port of Acajuca, on the Pacific Ocean, fifty miles west of San Salvador, and a sanitary commission has been appointed to start the situation. The drainage work will be inaugurated in the near future.

SMALLPOX IN PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Dec. 22.—One hundred and fifty-eight Portland homes are under quarantine for smallpox, according to today's communication by the municipal bureau of health. The number of individual cases of smallpox in the city is estimated at more than 300.

WE have the time. We have the money. We have the knowledge, too. Notice this and other Co.

NEW YORK'S SUNDAY PAPERS NOW A DIME

NOW COMES THE "CLOSE-UPS" IN HITCHCOCK'S OLIVE BRANCH TACTICS FOR TREATY RATIFYING

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Senator Hitchcock, Democratic leader in the Senate, whittled off a new olive branch today and invaded the Republican camp for a series of "Yule-tide" negotiations. He has put all shades of opinion except those of the irreconcileable vintage.

Large formal conferences are to be held in the Senate chamber, the Senate majority are understood to have been suggested by the mild "moderates" although it was said that a quiet word of inquiry was adopted would be left open for the present. Re-drafts of some of these reservations have been submitted by publicans outside Congress, while many suggestions for changes have come from other sources. It is not known what will be taken into consideration as the negotiations proceed.

It was not revealed which of the four moderates' suggestions the mild group would be willing to modify, but compromise discussions heretofore have centered about the preamble, which requires that the reservations be accepted by three of the great powers before the treaty is signed.

One of the questions is what shall I do? It is perfectly plain that this man had not in good faith attempted to compromise in the very bill of information filed here on December 3, violated this order (the court's injunction) and the League act every now and then that upon the question of the grand jury he has been taken to changes in regard to Shantung and some other subjects dealt with in the majority programme.

A protest against the action of the Foreign Relations Committee, in reporting Saturday the resolution of Senator Hitchcock to the Senate, to declare a state of peace also is said to have been made to the Republican leaders yesterday by the chief reservationists. They are the closest adherents to the President's closest adherents are unwilling to yield because they believe Mr. Wilson would drop the League of Nations unless he is given a chance to do so. It is not known what will be taken into consideration as the negotiations proceed.

THE GREAT COMPROMISE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Compromises efforts for ratification of the peace treaty moved forward with increasing impetus today when a number of both parties in the Senate, representing from legislative districts, agreed to postpone the treaty until a permanent peace had been made to the great powers before the constitutional prohibition would be lifted.

Some of the more optimistic expressed confidence that the ratification would come before January 1, when the League of Nations would be established and permitting the President to lift the constitutional prohibition.

There were other Senators, however, who took less stock in the compromise measure, predicting that in time the League would be established and that President Wilson might again intercede if reservations accepted by members of the Senate were not met with his approval.

For the present, however, there was every indication that Senators would go ahead with the peace treaty negotiations without further light from the White House. Senator Hitchcock said he had no appointment with the President and that he did not now intend to seek one.

There was wide discussion today of the activities of Bernard M. Baruch, the New York financial adviser to the peace commission, and whether he had been retained by a Senate committee to advise the treaty with Senator Warren G. Harding, whom he recently had a conference.

In his talk with Senator Underwood, Mr. Baruch had before him the names of the men recommended by him to be members of the Senate committee.

He and Senator Warren G. Harding, who had been captured by one of the torpedoed vessels and his name added to the list with others who were entitled to recognition, had a conference.

"MUST DRAW A LINE."

"With respect to the men who served loyally and well, but who did not risk their lives, it was a difficult problem to distribute awards. There had been some criticism because of the fact that the men who had given their lives and suffered in the armed service during the war were entitled to recognition, but the men who had done their duty in the transports were not given a medal," he said.

"I had the records searched for these names and had them added to the list. Commander of the fleet, however, happened to be one of these men. Mr. Baruch, who had not regard for the Republicans, who presented to him a list of names, said he would award a medal to every man."

"No method of making the awards can be wholly satisfactory, but I would make recommendations after the board had considered its work of investigation finished."

WHITE ARMY FLEES TOMSK.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

IRKUTSK, Dec. 21.—The city of Tomsk, Western Siberia, has been evacuated by the Siberian troops of the all-Russian government. General evacuation of Tomsk began December 16.

The council of ministers of the all-Russian government has issued a statement denying reports that the Bolsheviks have proposed peace to Admiral Rojchak, head of the government, and to Gen. Denikin, leader of the anti-Bolshevik forces on the southern front.

An intercepted wireless message sent out by the wireless authorities at Moscow reveals again the Bolsheviks in power in Turkey.

Gen. Denikin's volunteers advanced to the northwest of Kiev, although the Bolsheviks still hold that town.

RED'S PRESSING FORWARD.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

PITTSBURG (Kan.) Dec. 22.—Declaring that they would not return to work until they knew what Judge Anderson, chief of the U. S. District Court, had in mind, the 250 miners employed at Crown mine No. 6, one of the largest producers in the Kansas district, struck on October 21. In addition to the miners, 100 of their dependents are still on strike.

On the front Bolshevik cavalry raids have penetrated deeply into the left wing of the Don army and the latter has retired as far as Mariupol, the Don bridgehead.

Wars were in progress. With the capture of Taiga, Polish troops west of that town will have to fight their way eastward, the report said.

RED'S PRESSING FORWARD.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

WASHINGON, Dec. 22.—State Department today reported that Bolshevik attacks in Esthonia were increasing and that negotiations for the withdrawal into Latvia were in progress. With the capture of Taiga, Polish troops west of that town will have to fight their way eastward, the report said.

RED'S PRESSING FORWARD.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 22.—Representative Thomas D. Schall of Minnesota denounced Gen. Pershing in an address today. He declared that Gen. Pershing is seeking the presidency of the United States, and is "absolutely unfit for the office."

"I have felt it my duty to do what I could to thwart the ambitions of the man," he said.

Representative Schall was the only member of Congress to vote against conferring the full rank of general on Gen. Pershing.

"The only criterion to rewarding Pershing with a full generalship was not that it would foster militarism, but would be rewarding an unworthy oficer, an un-American, unrepresentative officer."

Mr. Schall said Gen. Pershing was "inhuman and cruel," and that he censured information that he had an "affection for his own country."

He reviewed troops at Jefferson Barracks, and led a parade through the business section. His 10-year-old son, "Sergeant" Warren, was with him to reward him.

Gov. Frederick D. Gardner will present him with a gold medal as a token of esteem from the Commonwealth of Mississippi, and declared no one who wore the uniform would ally himself with wavers of the red flag. He urged universal military training in the valor and efficiency of the A. E. F.

Gen. Pershing was presented with a gold casket by the city, and a large loving cup by the National Polish Congress of the U. S. The general decorated Sergeant M. B. Ellis, acclaimed Missouri's greatest war hero, with the Congressional Medal of Honor, and was the guest of 50 former service men at the City Hall.

He referred to the former soldiers as "buddies," and shook hands with each of them.

At a Chamber of Commerce banquet he entered with the holiday spirit of fun and confetti freely. He wore a paper cap at a rakish angle over his left eye.

SECOND LOT OF REDS SAIL SOON.

Government Clean-up Makes Another Ship Needed.

Destination of Emma et al a Washington Secret.

Wives, Etc., of Anarchists in Ellis Island Riot.

BY A. P. DAY WIRE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The soviet ark Buford, which sailed for an un-named port yesterday, with 240 married deportees aboard, will be followed before she has an opportunity to land by a second "ark" load of Reds, according to the best information obtainable today.

It was stated that a second batch of deportees probably would be embarked tomorrow, the soviet, the government's second big ship against aliens who have sought to bring about the overthrow of constitutional government. The Department of Justice has 300 radicals listed.

The Buford, which sailed for New York Harbor with a heavy guard in the darkness yesterday morning, carried Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, two of the most notorious anarchists ever to land in the United States ever has harbored, together with 240 other radicals of various degrees of "redness." The Department of Justice claims the Buford's crew is composed virtually the "brain" of the radical movement in the United States.

MORE WAIT TO GO.

Twenty-two anarchists remained at Ellis Island today awaiting deportation. The number of deportees with others from Detroit and Chicago whom the Department of Labor was unable to have transported to New York in time to be on the Buford, arranged for the departure of the next "soviet ark" have not been completed, according to Byron H. Uhl, acting commissioner at the Island.

A few married anarchists are held in various cities, awaiting the decision of the authorities as to whether to send their families with them. No anarchist of whose marriage there was official record was sent on the Buford, but eight of them had requested that their sweethearts be sent on the ship also.

TO WHAT PORT?

Berkman orders now in the hands of the master of the "soviet ark" delivered to him to be opened twenty-four hours from this port, will permit him to use his discretion as to what one of several Russian ports the captain might land at if he is deported and he is landed. It was reported here today. The flexibility of these orders, it was said, was provided so that the captain might be able to make arrangements in case of ice and bad weather or possible refusal of officials at any one port to permit Goldman, Berkman and the others to land.

The supplies on the Ark are sufficient for sixty to ninety days; and, regardless of the time it takes the passengers will be landed somewhere.

NAVAL ESCORT LIKELY.

It also is believed in many circles here that an escort of one or more destroyers now in North Sea waters will be provided for the Buford to escort their families to the Atlantic. This protection is to minimize the danger of striking a mine and to provide rescue craft should anything happen to the Buford, as well as to stop any possible attempt by them to say demonstrations of revenge made against her by those on board or by any friends of the anarchists at the port of embarkation.

Navy officers, familiar with the routes and winter weather conditions in the territory to which the Buford undoubtedly will head, said today that the Ark would be in the harbor of New York about four weeks before a landing can be effected.

RED WOMEN RIOT.

Led by a woman who declared her husband had been deported to Russia yesterday on the Buford, a mob of 150 "Reds" today attacked the entrance to the Ellis Island Ferry in an effort to force the passengers still awaiting deportation. A riot call was turned in before the police could restore order.

The mob turned around the keeper's cage several minutes before the attack was launched. Then the woman, proclaiming herself an anarchist, stepped forward and drove both feet through the glass window.

As pieces of glass crashed to the pavement the crowd began chanting the "International."

"Down with the dirty rotten government!" screamed the woman. "They have taken my husband and are taking the husbands, brothers and fathers of us all."

BEAT UP POLICE.

Unable to quiet the mob, Asa Mitchell, superintendent of the large office located at the tip of Manhattan, turned in a call for police reserves.

The mob turned on the first policeman to answer the call and beat him, but when more reserves with drawn clubs and a detail of coast guards with fixed bayonets arrived, the mob scattered and fled.

Members of the American Legion and the National Guard also came to inquire about relatives who had sailed on the Buford.

A young Russian woman who gave her name as Clara Brooks was arrested as the ringleader.

She later was arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct, found guilty and sentenced to the county jail for forty-eight hours pending an investigation by a probation officer. She gave her age as 34 years and told the magistrate that she had come to America to see her husband, who had come to see her husband on the Island, but that "they would not let me go."

The decision of the Senate committee on foreign relations of to investigate All-Russian agencies in the United States was "welcomed" in a statement tonight by L. C. A. E. Martin, self-styled Ambassador of the Russian Republic.

ARK'S DESTINATION SECRET.

BY A. P. DAY WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Anthony Caminetti, commissioner-general of immigration, said today he was unable to disclose the destination of the transport Buford, which left New York yesterday with a cargo of deported anarchists.

He said he did not know the ship's destination.

"I said, 'if I did I would feel it my duty as an American to protect the lives of the American soldiers and citizens on board not to reveal it.' I am not going to do that," he said.

He added, "I am going to be sure that no one else does at this time."

SUGAR PLANTERS DENY

RISE TO JAP WORKERS.

HAWAIIANS REFUSE TO ACCED TO THEIR DEMAND FOR INCREASE IN WAGES.

BY A. P. MONEY WIRE.

HONOLULU (T. H.) Dec. 19.—(Correspondent of the Associated Press.) The Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association has decided to refuse to accede to the demands presented by the Japanese cane laborers, following their first convention here recently. The Japanese demanded an increase for men from 77 cents a day to $1.25 and a maximum wage for women of 85 cents a day, which change in the bonus system, which during the past has increased their total wage approximately 50 per cent, over the stated pay.

The association trustees have stated they believe the bonus system failed to both sides than a direct raise in pay, because there was an increase in the price of sugar in 1929.

The trustees decided that in paying the yearly bonus 25 per cent of the total amount of the total cost of 50 per cent. The bonus rate will start at the same point as at present, $84 a ton sugar or $4.15 per hundredweight and on up to a price of 19 cents per pound for raw sugar.

Japanese labor leaders asserted recently that 24,000 workers were affected.

9,000,000 BALE HOLD UP.

BY A. P. MONEY WIRE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The proposed sale of 9,000,000 pounds of Cuban sugar to consumers at 19 1/2 cents a pound, with $100,000 profit, was held up today by Arthur Williams, Federal Food Administrator, because the fixed price is 11 cents.

Mr. Williams informed Emmanuel Rionda, member of a firm of brokers, to which the cargo was consigned, that the aid of the equalization board would be invoked, if necessary, to prevent the sale at the price proposed.

Rionda explained that the sugar would be held by his firm 18 1/2 cents a pound, divided as follows: 15 cents to growers, 3 1/2 cents for refining, 1 1/2 cents for duty and 4 1/2 cent for freight.

NOT IN PLAN TO HOCK AUSTRIA'S PAINTINGS.

BY A. P. MONEY WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The American government has received no proposal that the United States join with Great Britain and France in fulfilling a demand to Austria, obtaining valuable paintings, which held there as security, as asserted today by Earl Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, in the House of Lords.

Officials at the State Department, however, explained that the suggestion might have been broached to Edmund Dulac, Wallace of Paris, the United States ambassador on the Supreme Council, who was referring it to Washington.

FIVE SOLDIERS BRING BRIDES FROM SIBERIA.

BY A. P. MONEY WIRE.

RAN FRANCHE, Dec. 22.—Five troopers of a detachment of 150 men returning from service in Siberia on the transport Thomas brought Russian brides with them. It was ascertained when the Thomas docked today that 150 men from the transport Morris Hill, Capt. George B. Isilus, Salt Lake City; Chris Miller, Chicago; Dixon Lazerges and Alexander Alburus, San Francisco.

Major Joseph Lazier, member of a French mission to Siberia, and Mrs. Douglas Jenkins, wife of the American Consul at Harbin, were aboard the transport.

A Gift That Will Give Joy for Years

The AMPICO $875
in the FRANKLIN

At the price of an ordinary player piano!

The ideal gift for Christmas, for the home—one that will bring with it happiness and brightness, not for a little while, but for years, and that will be a constant source of joy to the whole family and all its friends.

The Ampico in the Franklin Piano fulfills all the requirements of an ideal gift. It is as if the wonderful gift of music itself were given! For the Ampico in the Franklin Piano reproduces exactly the playing of the world's greatest pianists in all its brilliance and beauty and with all its inspired human feeling.

This perfect reproducing piano brings Godowsky, Ornstein, Levitzki, Rachmaninoff, the great Russian composer-pianist, and over a hundred other master musicians into the home. A wealth of glorious music may be commanded; as if by magic it pours forth at a touch of the hand.

For one in the mood for gay lighter music for an informal dance or a children's party, the very latest hits are available, played with zest and spirit by men who make an art of syncopation. "The Vamp," "Sand Dunes," "Nobody Knows," hits from the Follies, Hitchy Koo and other Broadway successes—you may play any or all of them. And you may sing them, too, if you wish, for the popular numbers have the words right on the rolls.

The Ampico, the most marvelous musical instrument of the age, in the Franklin Piano, may be had on most attractive terms.

ISOLATION FEAR HAUNTS JAPAN.

Begins to Reap Harvest of Hate She has Sown.

No Possibility of England's Further Support.

Australia is Bitter Enemy of Crafty Oriental State.

BY FRAZIER HUNT.
IST CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
TOKIO, Dec. 18 (delayed)—Japan is greatly worried at the present time over the possibility of England's refusal to renew the Anglo-Japanese agreement which expires in 1921. If that treaty is not renewed it will leave Japan completely alone in the world, and with every country in the Far East hating it.

Its moral isolation is a new thought in Japan, but it is a thing that is keeping its statesmen awake at night. Its grab for Pacific Islands at the start of the war, its crushing of China with its twenty-one demands three years ago, with the subsequent forcing of the secret treaty with England and China, permitting it to retain and expand its military and naval conduct toward that Allies when victory was uncertain certainly turned Australia and Canada violently against it.

AUSTRALIA'S ANGER.

Every Australian today is much less anti-Japanese than Australia, and there is said to be a new conception in the British empire, so that embodied in Australia's and Canada's demands concerning Great Britain's relationship with Japan, will guide England's policy. Thousands of Englishmen in the Far East, who previously had been pro-Japanese, are now violently and openly anti-Japan, hating the Japanese for their attack against England in Japan at the very time the war looked darkest to the pro-Allies.

After all is said and done, the only possible enemy for Japan in America, and the British never would consent to any agreement with Japan that might throw them into a war with America. Australia, Australia and America would insist that a clause exemption America from any war agreement be inserted in any future treaty, and this would withdraw the teeth from the compact.

NO RUSSIAN ALLIANCE.

Everywhere in the world one hears talk of some future Japanese-German-Russian alliance. I have pretty thoroughly searched for even a faint possibility of such an alliance and have not located it on the island. In the first place, Russia "just isn't" today, and it will be ten years at least before real progress is made in re-establishing Germany, so it is growing big and sparring considerably, but it will be another ten years before it is an effective ally to anybody but Japan. So, if anybody gets any chills concerning the Japanese-German-Russian combination, they have big imaginations.

Japan in truth might just as well be the ally of America as of Germany and gain American business and operation. We would absorb the big end of its silk, which represents 30 per cent of its industries and most of its trade.

JAPAN NEEDS AMERICA.

Japan needs our steel, our machinery and raw cotton for its needs. It needs American money, co-operation and help to develop until it reaches a point where Japan is becoming an industrial country whose commercial interest is greater than its political.

America's Pacific fleet today practically equals the entire Japanese navy. England's whole position in the Far East is slipping and there is no question of England's equality at the present moment with Japan. But more important is the fact that it is primarily Australia's and Canada's question whether the treaty is renewed.

SCANDINAVIA WANTS PEACE WITH RUSSIA.

WORRIED OVER EXPORTS, IS WILLING TO TAKE CHANCE WITH BOLSHEVISM.

BY FRAZIER HUNT.
COPENHAGEN, Dec. 16.—(Delayed.) The commercial and official classes of Scandinavia want peace with Soviet Russia—because they have given up hope of Bolshevikism being defeated from without and because Scandinavia is suffering economically by the blockade of Russia.

In many discussions on the subject this question has always been asked: "Aren't you afraid of Bolshevik propaganda if there is peace with Russia?"

The answer usually is: "No, it is impossible to prevent Bolshevik propaganda—at least, to some extent—whether or not there is peace."

One prominent Danish official put it graphically today when he declared:

Bolshevism is political influenza. You recall what strict measures all the countries adopted when influenza began to spread and yet now, nevertheless, it swept over all of Russia. The disease of Scandinavia is like influenza, defying censorship and frontier guards. It must run its course and die, just as influenza does.

The blockade of Russia is hitting Scandinavia so hard economically that the three countries are becoming ardent for peace. They are anxious to find a market for their hundreds and thousands of dollars worth of goods bought, not for local trade, but for re-export to Russia.

THE SUNDAY is acknowledged to
in ALL THE WORLD.

DUAL RULE IS PLAN FOR IRISH.

Lloyd George Announces His Cabinet Policy.

Two Parliaments to Have an American Basis.

Warns that Secession will be Forcibly Fought.

LONDON. Dec. 22.—Premier Lloyd George outlined the government's proposals for Ireland in a long statement in the House of Commons today. Speaking with great deliberation and emphasis, he declared:

"Great Britain cannot accept separation. The people who think Britain can be forced into it have not read the story of the last five years."

Loud cheers greeted this declaration. In an eloquent oration, the Premier said:

"It is always the right time to do the right thing, and Britain can afford now more than ever to take the initiative. No one will be in a position of conceit from weakness. The last that by its power destroyed the greatest military empire in the world will not be suspected of qualities before a hand of wreathed assent."

NATIONALISTS ABSERT.

The House, and galleries were crowded, but it was noticeable that the Dublin members were present when the Premier began his address. Extra precautions had been taken to have guards at all the entrances to the House of Commons in order to prevent possible Sinn Fein disturbances.

In opening he remarked upon the statement of the Sinn Fein that "a civil war" was to be fought, he said, "after such a discreditable outrage" as had just been perpetrated in Dublin.

The Premier said that Parliament must get the fact right into its mind that in the existing circumstances no sensible scheme for Irish home rule was universally acceptable. Therefore, he continued, Parliament must assume the responsibility of proposing what it thinks fair and just. A settlement would be found in the enactment of a home rule scheme, but in its workings

IRELAND LIKE RUSSIA.

Ireland, said the Premier, was the only country in Europe except Russia where there was no law and order were out of sympathy with the machinery of the government. While Ireland, he said, was prepared to accept what was to-day, the fact remained, he declared, that Ireland was never so alienated from British rule as she is today.

Any attempt at secession, the Premier announced, would be fought with the same determination, force and resolution as had been shown by the Northern States in America.

The Premier said he intended to establish a "federal" government over the whole of Ireland and to create two Parliaments, one in the north and one in the south. The organization would be given Ireland to establish unity if she desired it and a council would be established at the outset selected by the two nationalities to form a connecting link between the two parts of the country.

TWO LEGISLATURES.

The two legislatures to be created in Ireland, the Premier said, would be clothed with full constitutional powers, and the two nationalities would have the right to legislate to discharge all powers not specifically reserved to the Imperial Parliament.

The Premier said the Irish contribution to the Imperial services was estimated at $18,000,000 annually. A joint exchequer board would settle the rate of contribution for the future and the question of the sale of the Bank of Ireland was referred to a committee of the two Parliaments to cover the initial expenditures.

Administrator, Lloyd George announced, would be reduced under the proposed measure to forty members as in the act of 1914.

AN AMERICAN IDEA.

The two nationalities in the Parliaments would have a taxation power equivalent to those in the State Legislatures of the United States. The income tax and excess profits and corporation taxes to be levied. The Irish Parliaments would control all local matters and all machinery for the maintenance of law and order except the higher judiciary and the law of treason.

The customs and excise services would be retained by the Imperial Parliament, the Premier said, but when Ireland was united, would be left to the Imperial Parliament to consider whether United Ireland would have control of the customs.

The Premier said the bill would contain clauses protecting the rights of the minorities. The powers would not be transferred, he added, until there was a single Parliament in Ireland.

FREE FINANCE POLICY.

The government would give the Irish government the advantage of all duties and taxes raised in excess of a fair contribution to the imperial services and a free gift to finance the development of the Irish Parliaments.

It would rest with the Irish people themselves, said Lloyd George, whether they desired union. The government would not be required, and in order to offer greater inducement to union, the government proposed that certain additional contributions be made to the Irish parliament when the union was accomplished.

All these proposals, added the Premier, were to be submitted in a bill for the consideration of the Parliament, and he appealed to all to give the measure fair consideration.

The question, he said, was not the desire for reparation.

NEWSPAPERS PESSIMISTIC!

Comments in this morning's newspapers on the Premier's statement reveal general hopelessness regarding any immediate peace. The war has been likely to result. Nobody expects the government's proposals to be accepted by the bulk of the Irish people.

It is stated Sir Edward Carson and his followers will accept the plan for a separate parliament for Ulster, but this is likely to antagonize the rest more than reconcile. The rest, it is conceded even by opponents of the government, that the attempt against the life of Viscount French on Friday will not affect the government's attitude nor induce it in any way to alter the scheme which has already been framed, but it is generally agreed this will not be counted as generosity by the enemies of Irish proposals.

Unknown persons last night, independent of the newspaper which sharply criticised the attack on Viscount French, wrecked the typewriting machines and crippling the stamping plant. The raiders escaped.

NO CLEW TO CRIMINALS.

The men who attempted to assassinate Lord Lieutenant French continue at liberty and so far as is known, no clew to their identities have been obtained. A Dublin District Judge Trippet allowed another half day of argument on the demurrers interposed to indictments returned by the Federal grand jury, charging violation of the law, against F. H. Chandler, Abe Blumenthal, Joe Goldberg and E. L. Lipsenthal.

At the conclusion of the arguments, Mr. McMonagle, for the defendants, and Asst. U. S. Atty. Palmer, for the government, Judge Trippet announced that it will be up to him to take into account the sufficiency of the indictment.

The first car, carrying Viscount French, passed quickly by the spot from which the shots were fired. Both the car and the body of the man who was buried in quick succession. Both of them struck a car which was empty, the second bomb exploded.

Sergeant Rumble, who was a member of the escorting party, was said by the State's Attorney to have been severely wounded. The last that by its power destroyed the greatest military empire in the world will not be suspected of qualities before a hand of wreathed assent.

AN EASTERN REVOLT MAN.

Neither of the automobiles was damaged, the testimony showed.

The State Attorney, Mr. Savage, had taken part in the rebellion on Easter Sunday, 1916, in Ireland, and that later he was removed to England.

The jury rendered a verdict late today in which it said Savage "met his death by a bullet fired by the members of the party."

A rider to the verdict expressed sympathy with the relatives of the dead.

COURAGEOUS EDITOR.

The Irish Independent, the daily newspaper, typewriting machinery was crippled last night by unknown persons who forced their way into the premises of the newspaper, took published a statement that it was a smaller size than usual. It is an account of the raid at the Independent.

The paper was printed and the leading article criticising the attack on Viscount French, to which it is believed the raiders objected.

It is about 10:30 o'clock when some forty armed men pushed their way into the independent building, members of the party cut the telephone wires, secured the doors. Others with drawn revolvers held up the staff in all departments.

None were injured. In the machine rooms the invaders wrecked the outfit and took away vital parts of the stamping machinery.

The raiders departed, their leader handing the editor a note, saying:

"You have outraged sensibility and endeavour to suppress the sympathies and opinions of the Irish people. This suppression will intimidate the Irish people that you are the only country in Europe except Russia where there is no law and order were out of sympathy with the machinery of the government. While Ireland, he said, was prepared to accept what was to-day, the fact remained, he declared, that Ireland was never so alienated from British rule as she is today.

Any attempt at secession, the Premier announced, would be fought with the same determination, force and resolution as had been shown by the Northern States in America.

The Premier said he intended to establish a "federal" government over the whole of Ireland and to create two Parliaments, one in the north and one in the south. The organization would be given Ireland to establish unity if she desired it and a council would be established at the outset selected by the two nationalities to form a connecting link between the two parts of the country.

PRESENT FOR THREE.

Dismissal of Auto Theft Charge is Made for Christmas.

This is a Christmas present," said Deputy District Attorney Hill yesterday, when he appeared in Justice Brown's court and filed a motion for dismissal of charges of grand larceny and receiving. Mrs. McDonald, James Nicols and Paul R. Venerable, negroes, accused of stealing an automobile belonging to Joseph Gorikow of 457 West Twenty-first place. The case was dismissed because of insufficient evidence.

WANTS TROUBLE OVER.

The customs and excise services would be retained by the Imperial Parliament, the Premier said, but when Ireland was united, would be left to the Imperial Parliament to consider whether United Ireland would have control of the customs.

The Premier said the bill would contain clauses protecting the rights of the minorities. The powers would not be transferred, he added, until there was a single Parliament in Ireland.

FREE FINANCE POLICY.

The government would give the Irish government the advantage of all duties and taxes raised in excess of a fair contribution to the imperial services and a free gift to finance the development of the Irish Parliaments.

It would rest with the Irish people themselves, said Lloyd George, whether they desired union. The government would not be required, and in order to offer greater inducement to union, the government proposed that certain additional contributions be made to the Irish parliament when the union was accomplished.

All these proposals, added the Premier, were to be submitted in a bill for the consideration of the Parliament, and he appealed to all to give the measure fair consideration.

The question, he said, was not the desire for reparation.

NEWSPAPERS PESSIMISTIC!

Comments in this morning's newspapers on the Premier's statement reveal general hopelessness regarding any immediate peace. The war has been likely to result. Nobody expects the government's proposals to be accepted by the bulk of the Irish people.

It is stated Sir Edward Carson and his followers will accept the plan for a separate parliament for Ulster, but this is likely to antagonize the rest more than reconcile. The rest, it is conceded even by opponents of the government, that the attempt against the life of Viscount French

SUGAR CASE TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT.

FEDERAL JUDGE TO PROCEED SLOWLY IN FIRST ACTION UNDER LEVER ACT.

The importance which the court attaches to the initial local prosecution under the Lever law, as amended, providing for criminal proceeding and punishment of persons convicted under the statute, which forbids profiteering in foodstuffs, was indicated, yesterday, when U. S. District Judge Trippet allowed another half day of argument on the demurrers interposed to indictments returned by the Federal grand jury, charging violation of the law, against F. H. Chandler, Abe Blumenthal, Joe Goldberg and E. L. Lipsenthal.

At the conclusion of the arguments, Mr. McMonagle, for the defendants, and Asst. U. S. Atty. Palmer, for the government, Judge Trippet announced that it will be up to him to take into account the sufficiency of the indictment.

REWARDS OF LABOR.

The head of the building trades union in New York gets a salary of $18,000 a year under a life contract. As a hard-hatted workman he appears to be quite a Napoleon of finance.

VENUS OF BROADWAY.

They have Aphrodite sweaters in the market. Maybe they are these armless creatures after the manner of the Milo statue. But it seems to us that Aphrodite should have the naming of a nightie.

WHOA, EMMA!

Emma Goldman shakes her fist at the Statue of Liberty as her bark recedes from the shores and shouts that this is the beginning of the end of America. If we are to be rid of the noisy feminine scolds who rave and rail at order and decency the end may be at least more peaceful and therefore the more easily endured.

JAZZING THE CHURCH.

The pastor of a Methodist church in Denver announces the introduction of a negro jazz band in connection with the Sunday services. He says it livens up the congregation and stimulates the activities of the church. It must be admitted that the chime would put a lot of pep in our prayer meetings.

PIRATES ALL.

With the Red ark on the seas bearing 250 deported anarchists back to Russia no one would grive over a sudden revival of the undersea warfare and a taste of the bombing that the Reds encourage for others. They would show no mercy to any form of authority; why should the government grant mercy and immunity to them?

SLUMP IN EFFICIENCY.

The warehouse people say that they have raised the wages of labor 10 per cent, but there is a falling off in efficiency of 15 per cent. Therefore they want to advance charges for labor 50 per cent. That seems to be the way of it in many lines. When wages are increased production is lessened and the good old consumer has to pay for the difference. Until production can catch up with wages the living costs will continue to climb. As long as the maxims of the union working man is "Give little; get much" there will be nothing doing for the grave diggers of old Hi Kost.

A LORD FOR LIFE.

A Lord Astor is trying as hard to get out of the peccage as his father did to get in and is having more serious obstacles. It was thought that by using mercury tablets or blowing out the gas he could rid himself of the burden, but it seems not so. The peccage is something even worse than a life sentence. It hangs over after the passing and carries on in the life beyond. When a man has been made a peer of the realm, there doesn't seem to be any machinery to unmake him—at least his fellow-peers can do nothing in the premises. Lord Astor sighs for the democratic air and commandship of the House of Commons, but being cursed by the social aspirations of his departed father is sentenced to wear a plug hat and occupy a plush bench in the Parliament of Lords. His brother lords cannot excommunicate him even though he beg it on his hands and knees. They may socially ostracize him, but they cannot pull off his peccage as one would his pajamas. His father craved the companionship and official association of the House of Lords and now the son is sentenced to it for the remainder of his days. Maybe the King would be able to ameliorate his condition. No one else seems able to furnish relief.

SPENDTHRIFT'S ITCH.

Wherever two or three people are gathered together up goes the price. Citizens' committees, investigating committees, housewife leagues and fair-prize committees meet for research or counsel and usually all that results is some new information that warrants a fresh advance in the cost of some commodity. Every gathering of men or women means more money spent or to be expended. Sugar investigators called to force down the price of sweets justify an advance to 15 cents. The State Board of Control calls a meeting for the purpose of forcing a retrenchment and the only result is the levelling of a demand for an increase of $15,000 in the salaries of employees. Every time a club or society meets it passes resolutions for regulations or reforms that call for the spending of fresh thousands. If the police could break up all gatherings the people might be able to save some money, but otherwise not. Every time the Legislature meets it talks in terms of millions. The State is furnishing the most expensive government in the world and, at that, is about four million dollars behind. If the Assembly only met once in ten years it would be millions to the good, but as it is whenever two or three legislators are gathered together it is for the purpose of devising fresh ways of dissipating other people's money. Companionship and association make spendthrifts of us all. Numbers beget a rivalry in throwing the dough away. If the government is ever to learn to save it will be through turning it over to the hermits and misers and putting a muffer on assemblies. The world is afflicted with spendthrifts' itch and it is contagious. Watch out.

PURCHASING POWER OF WOMEN.
Atty. Gen. Palmer states that women purchase 80 per cent of the food and clothing of this country, therefore women control the market for these two commodities—if they choose to use their power. Consequently, the women of the country can put an end to the H.C.L. whenever they are ready to act together, as individuals or organized.

It is simply a problem of concerted action. When the majority of women stop paying more than $5 for a pair of shoes, $8 will become the top price for shoes, instead of $15 or $18. When the majority of the families of the country refuse to pay more than 50 cents a dozen for eggs the market will respond. If women stop paying $6 for a suit they could have bought for $20 three years ago the price of that suit will come back to a figure more nearly corresponding to its actual value.

But will the women of the United States exercise this tremendous power which is in their hands? Can they be induced to demand reasonable prices and quality before they purchase? Will they wear their old clothes and go without luxuries for the sake of bringing the country back to a safe basis of living? When one looks at the women on Broadway and Seventh and views the mad rush of buying there does not seem to be much hope that women will ever forego the pleasure of wearing what some other woman is sporting—or something a little better—or that they will even consider the public good before they consult their individual desires.

The hope is in the organized body of women willing to act together, as some women's clubs are already reported as doing. Certain club women have agreed not to buy any more silk hose, for instance, in the desire of putting an end to the craze which seems to require silk hose as a badge of social standing. Just how many women have sacrificed their health and lives to this craze for gossamer hosiery, worn at all seasons of the year and on all occasions, would be an interesting subject for investigation. And another topic which might well be studied is the proportion of her wages which the average working girl expends for footwear at the present time.

We have had, during the past few years, some remarkable examples of what can be accomplished by teamwork when the people of this country are aroused to its need. The women especially have responded to the demands put upon them by the necessities of the war time, as in the Red Cross and war work of all kinds. A systematic effort to educate them as to their power as purchasers and the opportunity in their hands to control exorbitant prices and inferior quality of the necessities of life, as well as of the luxuries, may result in arousing public sentiment to the point where women will regulate their buying to the welfare of the country.

In the meantime, if every woman, individually, constitutes herself a committee of one to consider in every purchase the ultimate result as well as her own personal gratification the situation would soon regulate itself. It will inevitably follow that prices will be lowered when the purchasers refuse to pay them. And it is just as inevitable that so long as the majority of people go on paying whatever is asked prices will be maintained or increased.

FOOD AND CREDIT FOR EUROPEAN PEOPLES.

Hunger bids fair to reap a greater harvest of human life in Central Europe this winter than the aggregate losses of all the military forces engaged in the world war. Such is the estimate of no less an authority than Herbert Hoover, whose record carries the assurance that he is neither an alarmist nor one who permits his imagination to get the better of his judgment. Mr. Hoover told a Congress committee last week that starvation faces 20,000,000 people in Central Europe outside of Germany and that they will not survive the winter unless some means is discovered for their assistance.

This estimate was not uttered simply as a cry of woe. Mr. Hoover has been studying the situation for some months and he told the committee that he believed much less of life could be avoided by prompt assistance from this country. He proposed that the great surplus of wheat and flour held by the Grain Corporation should be sold on credit to the needy peoples. He specified Poland, Finland, Austria and other smaller nations of Central Europe. He is of the opinion that Germany is feeding herself at the expense of these other peoples and that Germany is not in need of immediate assistance.

It is not simply an eleemosynary part that this country would be playing in extending relief to the hungry millions who are left as jetsam in the wake of the tidal wave of war. Mr. Hoover pointed out that no stable government can resist such disintegrating influences. Hunger impels to plunder. Famine breeds riots. A people without food is a wild animal that rends whatever comes within its reach. Civilization endures only so long as its restrictions and institutions enable populations to live better under its controlling and humanizing influence than in a wild state.

A government that cannot protect the governed from death by starvation ceases automatically to function. Mr. Hoover said plainly that unless America is able to render assistance, the result will be the creation of another cesspool like Russia. When the stomachs of a people are working properly their brains are not likely to be affected by mental diseases, of which anarchy is but one of the symptoms. People turn Bolsheviks from overfeeding and from underfeeding. Nine-tenths of the parlor Bolsheviks in this country are dyed-in-the-wool. They are a product of overfeeding. It was stomach trouble that turned Upton Sinclair and a long list of others we could mention to radical socialism. It is underfeeding that is converting parts of Central Europe to Bolshevikism.

The Times has frequently asserted that it is as necessary for this country to save Europe from Bolshevism as from military despotism. Mental diseases spread like physical epidemics. They leap over frontiers, and even the great oceans do not impose insurmountable barriers. Bolshevism is a mental malady with many of the characteristics of the flu. Isolation will not suffice; as long as it exists in one country it will spread to all countries. Eradication is the only remedy; and that cannot be effected until the victims are fed.

And Mr. Hoover is of the opinion that POMONA, Dec. 22.—Harold J. Raverer, 22 years of age, and with three aliases used by him in this city in the course of alleged beating of hotels, and clothing stores, including the passing of spurious checks, will be given a preliminary examination before Judge H. M. White in the local Justice Court tomorrow, providing the date coincides with the return of the District Attorney's office.

The prisoner was arraigned before Judge White late today and pleaded guilty to the charge of passing a bad check, and was given a fine of $100 and a month's imprisonment for a suit of clothes and $10 in change. He is also alleged to have swindled another clothing store of $200, it being that during the different periods the price of suit and the amount paid on it is $10. At the time, he claimed to be a Lieutenant Fraser, just discharged from the service, and that he was a member of the Knights of Pythias. He stated that there was a check cashing him, and when that arrived he would pay for the balance due. He has failed to do so and the suit was brought by the Knights of Pythias who were the now worn by the Harvey youth.

TICKET SALE BIGGEST EVER.

Thousands Seek Admission to Big Football Game.

Gen. Liggett to Attend Rose Tournament.

Two Winter Hotels Open for Season at Pasadena.

LOCAL COMMERCIAL

PASADENA, Dec. 22.—Such a clamor has risen for seats at the Rose Tournament football game between Harvard and Oregon, here New Year's Day, that the Tournament Association today set about with further enlargements of the seating capacity at Tournament Park.

Early this season the west grand stand was enlarged and enlarged. Then it was decided to add more tiers to the east grand stand. And after the first few hours of discussion, members of the extra ticket committee, W. L. Lissman and President of the Tournament Association gave orders to the contractors to add more tiers to every grand stand except the west. It was done with the intent to raise the seating capacity to 25,000. It may be regretted that the new tiers may not further enlarge.

Local reports for members of the Tournament Association opened here this morning with a line-up before the box office a block and a half away. Several groups of spectators were here to keep places in the line since Saturday night. This morning prominent citizens relieved them and finally got the tickets. Every member had eight tickets.

Leslie B. Hawry, the first tournament member in line, bought several hundred tickets for all the tournaments, including the Valley Club and the Valley Hunt Club of Pasadena. He held the membership certificates for all of them. G. MacLaurin, of the Overland Club, Pasadena, was second in line.

The disease of rumors that persons not members of the Tournament Association were buying extra tickets, has been dispelled. The first member to buy more than eight tickets was President W. L. Lissman and President Bartow made investigation of all the other stations this morning. They reported that 10 per cent of the members were not buying the limit; that membership certificates were being presented for extra tickets, and that one had even had allowed to exceed the limit of eight tickets to a member.

The association is exercising every precaution to keep the ticket out of the hands of speculators.

The Harvard delegation will have a reserved section on the west side of the field and Oregon on the east. The sale of tickets to members will continue here tomorrow and Wednesday the public sale will begin.

GEN. LIGGETT COMING

NOVELISTS POORLY PAID.

A novelist makes more out of the motion-picture rights to his book than he does from the sale of his book. That is said by East D. Biggers, author of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," here today. Mr. Biggers and his family are at the Maryland for the winter.

"People don't seem to buy many books these days," said Mr. Biggers, "so I have practically given up writing stories and novels. I am developing all my time to the stage, and it is hardly worth one's while to write a book, the returns from the stories are so small. I guess the public gets more pleasure from the stage than from the movies or magazines."

VENICE, Dec. 21.—Though they are far away from the freezing country where Santa Claus lives, the 800 Canadian children who are spending the winter in the bay district are anticipating with some wonder the Christmas tree that he has promised to bring them on December 25. Even the grown-ups, it is said, will be transported with the mysterious evergreens. It is to stand in the center of the Venice dance pavilion, and its boughs will reach far toward the ceiling. It will revolve on a big pedestal. The thousands of lights will twinkle through the tinted branches. It will be hung with presents for the children who will be led in a series of old songs and games.

PARALYZED, NOW LOSES ARM, LEG.

Co-operate with Doctors and Cure Same Charge.

Jew-Hall Hours and Other Matters are Acted On.

Proud and unanimous endorsement of the organization and plan for the Christian League of Healing and Hospital Service was given yesterday morning by the Los Angeles Hospital Association. Dr. Herbert Smith, chairman of the meeting, declared the matter of healing in the churches to be one of a tremendous and vital importance. People are asking if the churches are earnest," he said, "and if so, what and when Christian healing will be put in operation in the section of Los Angeles."

Dr. C. F. Winshiper reported that the result of conferences of ministers held the 1st and 2nd inst., the Los Angeles Christian League was organized. The new will hold monthly meetings and the definite operation will be put into effect through the churches.

There are three planes of healing—physical, mental and spiritual. The movement, he said, will be conducted in the various churches, so that, while man, as all three moving to questions, Dr. Winshiper said that Christian healing will be conducted in connection with that it will include, in the laying on of hands and the healing service will be performed without money and gifts.

At the Receiving Hospital it was learned that the left side of Mead's body had been paralyzed for a long time.

This announcement was made last night by Ira Clerk, acting manager of the branch, which is to occupy the entire second floor of the Washington Building, Third and Spring streets.

The transfer will be made on New Year's Day and the members of the new branch will be drawn from the nine Southern California counties and that part of Southern Arizona, which is in the Twelfth District, and more readily committee to represent the association at the hearing on the matter next Monday.

The resolution voted in favor of making Sunday, January 1, Law-enforcement Day in the churches. It also endorsed the proposed improvements of the Anti-Salute League and the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. campaign for a $750,000 fund to broaden the scope of its work.

Film Star Weds Wealthy Pasadena.

Mrs. Herbert Somborn.

GLORIA SWANSON IS BRIDE.

An interesting romance of the silent culminated last Saturday afternoon when Gloria Swanson, film star of the Lasky-Famous Players, was married to Herbert Somborn, Pasadena millionaire, in a private parlor at the Alexandria, Judge Crawford, tying the knot. The friendship between the two is of several months' standing.

Mr. and Mrs. Somborn will leave for the north for a short honeymoon within the next day or two, via San Francisco and the mountains, and will return shortly after the first of the year, when Mrs. Somborn will resume her work before the cameras at the studio.

The bridegroom is one of the wealthiest men in Pasadena, and it is probable he will build a new home there during the coming year. When Miss Swanson admits a few weeks ago to a Times representative that she was engaged to Mr. Somborn she stated she did not contemplate marriage, as she had been separated from him. The bullet struck a building, glanced off, and killed the boy.

Mrs. Somborn is one of the most popular of the Lasky stars. She made her first big role as the heroine of the Cecil B. De Mille production, "The Cheat," for Paramount, in which time she has been considered one of the big drawing cards among the picture stars. She was formerly the wife of Wallace Beery, picture star, but was divorced from him more than a year ago.

She gave her age as 29 and Mr. Somborn his as 34.

The suit case which brought about his arrest was taken by Cobb from the Alexandria and was thought by him to contain jewelry.

He intended selling the suit case and jewelry and securing enough money to return to his home in the East.

SYRACUSE CALLS BROUGHER.

The First Baptist Church of Syracuse, N. Y., has extended a call to Dr. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of Temple Baptist Church of this city, and Assistant Pastor Henry M. Cook. The Syracuse congregation offers $10,000 a year for the services of Dr. Brougher, and $2500 a year for his associate. Telegraphic advice from Syracuse last night were to the effect that Levi S. Chapman, chairman of the board of trustees of the church will come here to extend the call personally, and present the various details of the plan which his church has for the future of the structure of its great church.

The Syracuse congregation has a downtown church similar to Temple Baptist Church of this city, but has one of the most famous pipe organs in America. The church has been without a pastor for two years, and within the past year it has made overtures to Dr. Brougher, but these have been declined. Last night Dr. Chapman said that the church is worthy of the consideration of any preacher, but that he is not prepared to say at this time what decision he will make in the matter.

He stated that he expects to consult the officials of Temple Baptist Church before making any decision regarding the call, he said, would also be the attitude of his assistant, Rev. Cook.

Temple Baptist Church has just completed a $500,000 campaign for which it will provide itself with a dormitory, church, parsonage and a short time ago the congregation voted unanimously that Dr. Brougher should remain with the church until it was financially located in the new church home.

Admits Theft of a Suit Case from Lobby of Hotel.

Wayne C. Cobb, 21 years old, who says he was twice decorated for bravery in France, was arrested by detectives yesterday, charged with stealing a suit case belonging to A. C. Jones, a war veteran at the Hotel Roosevelt, 22nd and Spring streets. Cobb, who is a detective, was captured by the Detectives Crozat de Guerre and a Distinguished Service Cross. He also admitted that he was a deserter from the Thirteenth Infantry. A few days ago he was in the French Foreign Legion, and he has been held without a hearing.

Cobb, when arrested near Eighth and Broadway, denied all knowledge of the suit case, and said he was a discharged soldier and that he arrived in this city just a week ago. Later he broke down and confessed the theft of the suit case. He also told the detectives story of his army service which lead to the Federal officers being notified of his arrest.

The American decoration, awarded to Cobb, was won by him on September 12, 1918, when the American troops advanced at Mont Sec. He received the decoration according to his statements, for carrying men across the lines. On the 12th he was twice wounded, being twice wounded. The French medal was given him, he stated, for brave work during an air raid.

The private stated that he returned with his division to the United States and then deserted. He paid a visit of ten days to his parents in Charlevoix, Mich., and then, fearing retribution to his command, came to California. He arrived in Los Angeles about three weeks ago.

The suit case which brought about his arrest was taken by Cobb from the Alexandria and was thought by him to contain jewelry.

He intended selling the suit case and jewelry and securing enough money to return to his home in the East.

HONOR MARY PICKFORD.
FILM QUEEN TO BE INVITED TO PLAY PANTOMIME.

By Grace Kingsley

That darling of the picture drama, Mary Pickford, is to have yet another honor. This, according to no less an authority than H. D. Samuelson, of Samuelson Productions, Ltd., of London, who is in the city at present, is the proposal on the part of certain English theatrical interests to invite Miss Pickford to take part next year in a famous old Christmas pantomime of "Cinderella," which is given every Yuletide season in London.

Such arrangements have been made, but it is understood the invitation is to be extended to Miss Pickford within the next few months.

Little Miss Pickford is one of the greatest favorites in England, even as she is here, and it is quite unlikely she will refuse to accept if such an offer of an appearance.

There is no doubt that the already popular Christmas pantomime, which has grown to be a tradition in London, will receive unexampled patronage.

OPHEUM BILL.

IS OF THE BEST.

The Opheum bill this week is as lively as a couple of kids. Of course, Gertrude Hoffman is the large note on the bill, and she sets a new pace even for herself in her sparkling impersonation of a pipkin dame, Mrs. Miss Hoffman is much, much plumper than of yore, but wears just about as much (or perhaps even less) of her new clothes as ever. It comes to think of it, I think, counting up to three, I observed an extra bird in one of her costumes. Ridiculous, I know. Miss Hoffman is reached out for and grasped a set of artistically illusive conceptions, as far as possible away from the old "A Day's Pleasure" of the Alhambra, particularly being a series reflecting the national spirit of the various nations as done in Greenwich Village, but in a room and with no stage settings whatever, yet breathing a highly effective dramatic atmosphere. Her impishness likewise is measured that of Fannie Brice being especially delightful.

"Indoor Sports" is a kiddy little number by Maxine Elliott and Hugo Hirsch, about two men who don't want to wed, and two girls who do. Genevieve Frisselle, Mildred Brown, Jeanne Lorraine, and Dorothy Pownall are the over-all pleasure.

Josephine Gassman's pickin'kin' just would grow up, and now they are Phina & Co. Their first and pleasant quartet, and include Jess Hall, Susan Clough, Arthur Bowes, and William Stitt, not to overlook that engaging Malcolm St. John. Colleen Moore and Hart are two men who do a screamily funny burlesque on the strong man stuff, and Maria plays the accordion probably as well as that instrument can be played. The only notable act is that of Eva Shirey and her jazz boys.

Pantomime at Victory.

At the Victory this week is the most interesting pantomime film comedian that has ever found its way to the silversheet. It is entitled "His Official Fiancee" and has Vivian Martin and Forrest Stanley.

It's all about a young business man who asks one of his stenographers, please, to be his official fiancee, to his official "fance for six months." The girl accepts because she needs the money he offers in order to help out her brother. She visits his home and family, and the arrangement is that she should give birth to a number of comedy situations. Of course there's another man in the case of whom she was formerly very fond to help him up in the situation, but she's come to her senses at the last, with everybody ensured to the right people.

We had really forgotten, so long as we were seeing it, that Martin was a very clever little girl she is, and I hope we see lots more of her in the future. Forrest Stanley gives a most plausible interpretation of the most plausible interpretation of the rôle of the girl, and others in the cast are most pleasing.

If you like breezy romance don't miss "His Official Fiancee."

Carl Laemmle, president of Universal, is due to arrive in town today. It is understood he will remain in the West several months, possibly permanently. Among other matters to claim his attention will be

"MORE DEADLY THAN MALE."

Feature at Clune's Broadway Theater.

Scene from Ethel Clayton Play.

OPERA DUE SOON.

The San Carlo Opera Company, the gaudy, gaudy, gaudy, Fortune Gallo, is already facing westward. It is scheduled for a two weeks' engagement at the Alhambra, opening, February 25, and will include the usual favorites "Butterfly," "Bohème," "Faust," "Trovatore," "Rigoletto," "Love Tales of Manon," "Aida," "Aida," "Marche," "Turkish," "Barber of Seville," and as a novelty Verdi's "La Forza del Destino."

Alfredo Kraus, whose success at the Alhambra, last season, was a resounding success, has now been engaged to sing in the cast.

ERNEST DOUGLAS MUSICALE.

Ernest Douglas, who has just had a very successful tour of Australia, has recently formed a new organization, The Ernest Douglas' "Golden" Alfred Kastner, harpist, all members of the Philharmonic Orchestra. They have announced their repertory by Rameau, Mozart, Debussy, Chopin, Saint-Saëns, Moussorgsky, Glinka, Beethoven, Jaques Offenbach, Agostino Mizzi, and many other well-known singers are with the company.

CONSTANCE TALMADGE.

Constance Talmadge is the star of "The Fall of Babylon," and the supporting cast includes Mildred Harris, Alma Rubens, Kate Bruce, Ruth Darling, Tully Marshall, George Fawcett, Walter Long, Alfred Paget and Elmo Lincoln.

PAGANT at Studio Club.

Reflecting the spirit of the season, "The Nativity," an outdoor Christmas play in six acts, was given by the Studio Club at the Hollywood Studio Club with the assistance of such well-known picture stars as Frank Keenan, David Butler, Josephine Hull, Eddie as the shepherd, and others.

The following played: Stella Stouffer, Doris Carver, Muriel St. George, Anna May, Ouida Bergère, Chopin, Liszt and Bach numbers made up the programs.

MATINEE MUSIC CLUB.

The programme of the Matinee Musical Club last Thursday afternoon at the Ebell Clubhouse featured a solo performance by Constance Talmadge, in character sketches; Patrick O'Neill, tenor, in Irish songs, and Marie Mae Bright, in classic dances.

SYMPHONY TEA.

Students of Hilda Nolte, pianist, and others who have recently been touring Australia, have lately determined to reside in this city, and has opened a studio. She found the climate attractive upon her arrival and decided to remain. She has now made a speciality of preliminary vocal training, and has taken especially gifted pupils on tour with whom she often sings. It is her intention later to offer scholarships to promising students who are successful in a contest to be decided by local juries.

BY CHAPIN HALE.

The Christmas atmosphere permeated everything yesterday. In the retail district the crowds were so great that buying was often resisted by its own volume. The last minute contingent was in evidence and the indications are that it will continue to make itself felt up to closing time tomorrow evening. The position was bearing up well under an average departing mail for points within a 700-mile radius while the incoming rush was almost like a tidal wave.

The present condition business in the financial district and on the exchanges developed the usual holiday

slowdown, and the tendency everywhere is to defer promotions and announcements until after the first of the year.

Businesses are taking advantage of the calm to prepare tax reports, and to begin the year-end house cleaning. The present market after making allowances for the new year is quite satisfactory, with conservative business exercising a certain degree of caution in dealing with futures.

American Exporters.

E. H. Ford who is studying trade conditions in the Far East for from Shanghai, warning of a possibility of what he calls "export fever."

Branch houses he have been registered in Shanghai at the rate of between sixty and seventy-five per cent. He feels that "many" houses are in financial difficulty, but he has no definite figures to support his statement.

Walnut Growers' Association

any possible increase in the price of walnuts.

In other words, China has to, free herself from her internal quarrels

NEW OFFERING—

The Locomobile Company

Common Stock

CAPITALIZATION

Bonded Debt	$2,500,000	$1,416,000
Preferred Stock	5,000,000	3,350,000
Common Stock (no par value)	300,000 sha.	200,000 sha.

DESCRIPTIVE SUMMARY

(1) The company is to acquire the business and assets of the Locomobile Company of America, incorporated in 1902, and is to become the largest manufacturer of automobiles in quantity in the United States.

(2) Mr. Charles S. Hare, heretofore Vice-President of the Packard Motor Car Company, is to be President of the Locomobile Company. Messrs. O. E. Russel, H. C. Hare, and W. L. Gurney, who until recently also held positions with the Packard Motor Car Company, and are connected with the Mercer Motor Company, will be available to the new company. It is anticipated the Mercer Motors Company will acquire a substantial block of Locomobile Company stock.

(3) The company, in order to meet a growing demand, will add to its present high-grade passenger car and commercial truck outfit, a medium-sized and lower priced Locomobile quality car.

(4) The stock for the year ended June 30, 1915, was certified by Messrs. H. H. Wade, Gurney & Co., Public Accountants, after allowing for bond interest and preferred dividends of the new company, to be $1,245,223.

(5) Net earnings for 1915, based on unfilled orders now on hand, are estimated in excess of $100,000 a month. Net earnings increased from $100,000 for the year ended June 30, 1914, to $1,245,223 for the year ended June 30, 1915.

Bonds—the Sane, Sensible Gift

WHAT other gift will bring so much happiness—so much pleasure—so much satisfaction? What other gift offers such possibilities? Diamonds and jewelry are not investments when bought at inflated prices and paid for with fifty-cent dollars—and when prices return to normal, you could not realize half their present value.

The real worth-while gift-investment is a bond. It brings a steady income—it guarantees payment of dollar for dollar on your investment—and is readily turned into cash, should necessity demand it.

Our bond offerings are backed by ample security, pay a reasonable return on your money, and are sensible gift-investments. Denominations of $100 and up.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Stocks were heavy during the greater part of today's apathetic session, the trend of prices again denoting the uncertainties and economic problems which overshadow domestic and international credit conditions.

The only important branch of the market was the railroads, which advanced to a point, in the last hour, after opening at 7, the advance being attributed to last week's bank statement, which revealed another deficit in current assets, the result of the fall in the money market, there being a general understanding that the quoted rate of 5.5 per cent. is correct, if any relation to actual conditions can be drawn from small amounts running to 60 and $90 were reported at 7-3-4 per cent.

Oil United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Marine Bonds, 8. Sterling demands, $2,421,441; cables, $2,34. Time loans strong; 69 days, 90 days and 6 months, 7%.

Call money, strong; high, 12; low, 11; ruling, 11-1/2; bid, 14; offered at 13, last 100s, 12.

Bar silver, $1,324. Mexican dollars, $1,014.

Short selling was most effective in General Motors, Mexican Petroleum and Republic and Crucible steels and several of the related equities, these issues closing at variable losses after having shown early gains. Sales amounted to $50,000 shares.

Railroad bonds followed the course of trading in stocks, with speculative issues among cosiers and grainers gaining 1 to 2 points. Library Bonds eased and foreign war bonds reacted fractionally. Total issues for value, aggregated $26,500,000.

on the day before he and Freda had gone to a hill back of the home and talked, and she told him he was in trouble. (Newell then told of the automobile ride to Hermosa Beach and the later ride to Topanga Canyon, where he said he had stopped the car and talked to her, who had made arrangements to have an operation performed that night. He (Newell) said that Freda argued against it with Freda for an hour and half. Then he got in the front seat of the car. There he lost his head and shot her. He said his first thought was to take Freda to a hospital. Then he fell asleep, and when he awoke he was dead, and, after covering her up and driving around awhile, he brought her to the police station.

During the interview, Cline and Newell agreed that the boy (Newell's) father was United States Senator Harry S. New of Indiana. Attorney Davis's cross-examination of Detective Cline was comparatively brief, but it was brought Freda's mother because she refused to DIAMOND THIEF ARRESTED.

On a grand jury indictment, telegraphed here from Indianapolis, Orlando G. Horton, 24 years old, was arrested at Fourth street and Broadway, last night by Detective Sergeants Beaumont and Roberts. He was held pending further investigation.

The only information available as to the nature of the charges in the indictment was furnished by Horton who said that he supposed he was indicted for the robbery of a man known to him.

"I am willing to go back to Indianapolis to stand trial if the charges are false, and I want to clear my name in the city where

He said that he had been sentenced to the Indiana penitentiary for from one to four years, in Indianapolis, on August 22 for entering a jewelry store there in the daylight and snatching a day with $6,000 worth of diamonds. He said he was granted probation.

"I am willing to go back to Indianapolis to stand trial if the charges are false, and I want to clear my name in the city where

"My reply was that he was going to marry Freda Lesser, and that she refused to return to her home and have an operation performed. Newell said he was determined that she should not return to have the operation performed, even if he had to do it in the daylight. Then he said while they were talking he lost his head and shot her. It is the jail Newell said that insanity had been raised as his defense and he did not like it because he was not insane."

LAY OVER SELECTION OF NEW SCHOOL HEAD.

BOARD MEMBERS TO CONSIDER APPLICANTS NEXT MONTH; MAY ACT IN JUNE.

Consideration of the applicants for the position of superintendent of the city schools will probably be postponed until June 5, Melville C. Dozier, chairman of the committee of the whole of the Board of Education, announced last night. The selection of a new superintendent is now in the hands of this committee, and there will be no meeting held until that date, Mr. Dozier stated.

No action was taken by the board last night. Several applications were received relative to the vacancy, but they were all referred to the committee without being read at the meeting.

Edward Price, president of the South Park Improvement Association, appeared before the board in support of the application of the association with reference to the superintendent. He is in whole-hearted forth the opinion that it is unnecessary to go out of this city to secure a superintendent.

He believes it would be a disservice to our educational system to have to admit to the balance of the United States that this great city of Los Angeles has no educator now teaching in its public schools who is qualified to be the superintendent of schools," said the letter.

It is probable that the appointment will be deferred until next June, and the official may take his office in September.

HOLLY'S SHORT; BLAME VANDALS.

Forest Reserve has Small Supply of the Red-Berried Christmas Foliage.

Reports brought to Supervisor Charlton of the Angeles National Reserve yesterday, are that there is an unusual shortage of the holly berry and foliage in the big woods. This news is brought by hikers who, taking advantage of the offer of the Department of Agriculture, have gone into the canyons and climbed the mountains to secure a supply of the Christmas decorations.

It is understood that about the only places where holly is to be found are all on the reserve are in El Cajon Pass, Monrovia Canyon and along the Mt. Wilson road.

There are various reasons for the shortage of the holly berry this year, one being that in past seasons people have gone into the mountains and destroyed the bushes.

Besides Detective Cline, the witness in the shooting murder trial of J. H. Richardson, a newspaper reporter, who told of talking with New at the City Jail, and testified that New told him that he had shot New "did not seem to care what he happened to him."

"My reply was that he was going to marry Freda Lesser, and that she refused to return to her home and have an operation performed. Newell said he was determined that she should not return to have the operation performed, even if he had to do it in the daylight. Then he said while they were talking he lost his head and shot her. It is the jail Newell said that insanity had been raised as his defense and he did not like it because he was not insane."

Q. (By Mr. Davis for the defense): New was resentenced being called A. Yes.
